Yes, I Am Woman! Sep 28 2019 "Yes, I am Woman" is a collection of poems, which touch on women's emotions. Heartfelt and very candid, these poems explore the emotions women feel but do not always express. The words in the poems paint descriptions of a woman's triumph, victories, success, and failures. These poems empower women to understand how they relate to other women who experience similar situations in their own personal lives. The poems explore how some women feel when they fall in love, have their heart broken, are grieving, and their toleration of the opposite sex. "Yes, I am woman," has a poem for every woman from all different backgrounds.

Just Say Yes A Chronicle of A Stroke Survivor Sep 20 2021 This book is a chronicle of the events of my battle with a stroke. I was informed and I fought hard and survived. During the stroke and my recovery I felt as if I had been in a dream state. I was not frightened but I had a determined attitude and inner strength. It felt like my soul knew everything was going to be okay. In retrospect, I felt I had a purpose in life and part of that was to complete this book so others could be more informed. I wanted to increase their awareness of the importance of acknowledging stroke symptoms and getting immediate help at the onset.

Yes! I Am a Military Child Nov 22 2021 We've all heard the term "military brat" before. It pertains to those children who grew up in military families. "Brats" wear the name like a badge of honor, often because of the moves, stressors and cultural experiences that make them more resilient than their civilian counterparts. When Miss Laura started writing music and books for military story time kids (while her husband served as a Naval Oral Surgeon on NAVSTA Great Lakes), she asked the parents what they thought about their kids being called 'Brats'. Her audience was tots to kindergarten age, and the parents agreed that 'Brat' was a term that didn't really relate at those ages. So 'Military Child' came to life in Laura's music, stories, and books. 'Yes, I Am a Military Child' is not an attempt to draw away from being a "Brat", it's simply a 'warm-up' to the badge of honor of the title that connotes affection and respect. This book is a sing-along to two of the songs on Miss Laura's special music CD 'Miss Laura & the Military Brats' available on YouTube, Amazon, etc. Scan below to listen. Check out Miss Laura's special 'Military Child, That's Me!' t-shirts, too! Scan below to purchase! Thank you so much for being a part of the magic that is all things 'Miss Laura'. I hope you really come to love the illustrations painted by Dominique, as she is a true Military Brat. Thank you for buying this book and have a ton-of-fun filling in the special pages in the back! -Miss Laura

Yes, I Am Talking To You Feb 23 2022 If you ask someone to do a job, you must first tell them what the job is and give a job description. Otherwise they might get partway into the job and decide this wasn't what they had in mind and quit. The last thing Jesus did before going back to heaven was to give every believer a job to do: make disciples. This book details what it means to be a disciple and gives a thorough job description so that we will know what to expect in fulfilling our duties. Matthew 5:1-2 says, "And seeing the multitudes, he went up into a mountain: and when he was set, his disciples came unto him: And he opened his mouth, and taught them." The kingdom of God operates in a specific way and cannot be altered to fit our way of doing things. Jesus wanted anyone who accepted His call to know how to do it right. So He had to teach them.
