Tuntutan profesionalisme dalam dunia kerja dengan waktu yang tidak tersedia untuk melakukan pekerjaan sebaik mungkin, baik di lembaga pemerintah maupun non pemerintah menimbulkan permasalahan dan beban sehingga mengakibatkan tekanan mental dan pada akhirnya menimbulkan stres kerja (Zaini, 2015).

Cenat-Cenut Matematika Feb 01 2020 Aku memang membenci matematika. Dengan semua kerumitan logikanya, siapa yang tak berpotensi membencinya? Dari dulu. Hari sebelum kemarin. Kemarin. Hari ini, sekarang. Dan sampai sesudah hari ini pun, mungkin aku akan tetap membencinya Apa sih sebab mendasar kita membenci matematika? Memikirkan ulangan matematika yang bisa bikin kepala cenat-cenut? Atau rumus-rumus yang seabrek bin njelimet bikin kening berkerut-kerut? Apa itu karena guru killer yang justru bikin kita galau akut? Padahal jika kita bisa memahami sebab mendasar yang menjadi alasan kita tidak suka, kebencian itu pun dapat bermetamorfosis menjadi cinta seperti yang dialami oleh salah seorang matematikawan terpintar di dunia. Itu juga yang terjadi dalam kisah-kisah di buku ini: tak ada kebencian abadi untuk matematika jika kita dapat mengelolanya. Buku ini tidak hanya untuk para siswa, tetapi juga untuk guru, orangtua, mentor atau siapa pun yang tertarik pada matematika. Mereka bisa banyak belajar, berevaluasi diri, dan berkaca pada kisah-kisah yang dialami para penulis yang kesemuanya berhubungan dengan matematika. Seperti kisah ketertarikan penulis terhadap matematika, kiat-kiat mengajar dan belajar matematika yang menyenangkan, serta berbagai hal menarik yang mungkin luput dari perhatian kita—walaupun sering kita alami dalam detik kehidupan kita bersama matematika. Pada akhirnya kita tidak dapat mengelak, bahwa dalam kebencian terhadap matematika itu sebenarnya kita memandang kecintaan terhadapnya.

Saman Apr 28 2022 Saman is a story filtered through the lives of its feisty female protagonists and the enigmatic "hero" Saman. It is at once an exposé of the oppression of plantation workers in South Sumatra, a lyrical quest to understand the place of religion and spirituality in contemporary lives, a playful exploration of female sexuality and a story about love in all its guises, while touching on all of Indonesia's taboos: extramarital sex, political repression and the relationship between Christians and Muslims. Saman has taken the Indonesian literary world by storm and sold over 100,000 copies in the Indonesian language, and is now available for the first time in English. ABOUT THE AUTHOR Ayu Utami was born in Bogor, grew up in Jakarta and obtained her bachelor degree in Literature Studies from University of Indonesia. She worked as a journalist for Matra, Forum Keadilan, and D&R. Not long after the New Order regime closed Tempo, Editor, and Detik, she participated in the founding of Indonesia's Alliance of Independent Journalists to protest the closure of those three weeklys. Currently she is working for the cultural journal Kalam, and at Teater Utan Kayu. Saman was awarded the Prince Claus Award in the year 2000.

Buah Zine: Issue 4 Jun 06 2020 Buah zine: Issue 4 includes four interviews, photography from isolation, song recommendations and poetry.

Our Dead World Aug 28 2019 A young woman suffers a mental breakdown because of her repressive and religious mother. A group of children is fascinated by the sudden death of a friend. A drug trafficking couple visits Paris at the same time as a psychopathic cannibal. A mysterious wave travels through a university campus, driving students to suicide. A photographer witnesses a family's surface composure shatter during a portrait session. A worker on Mars sees ghostly animals in the desert and longs for an impossible return to Earth. A plastic surgeon botches an operation and hides on a sugar cane plantation where indigenous slavery is practiced. Horror and the fantastic mark the unstable realism of Our Dead World, in which altered states of consciousness, marginalized peoples, animal bodies, and tensions between tradition and modernity are recurring themes. Liliana Colanzi's stories explore those moments when the civilized voice of the ego gives way to the buzzing of the subconscious, and repressed indigenous history destabilizes the colonial legacy still present in contemporary Latin America. Colanzi is considered by critics to be one of the most promising voices of the new Latin American narrative, and this book is an ambitious formal and thematic leap.

Beyond »Ethnic Chick Lit« - Labelingpraktiken neuer Welt-Frauen*-Literaturen im transkontinentalen Vergleich Oct 03 2022 Chick lit hat seit ihrer Entstehung Mitte der 1990er Jahre kulturelle, geographische und sprachliche Grenzen überschritten. Ihre globale Popularität wurde lange als Transfer von den weißen westlichen »Zentren« in die »Peripherien« beschrieben, vom originären anglo-amerikanischen Genre zu adaptierten, ethnischen Subgenres. Sandra Folie zeigt anhand von Fallbeispielen vermeintlich peripherer ethnic chick lit aus Asien und Afrika, wie sexistische und ethnizierende Labeling- und Vermarktungsstrategien international erfolgreiche Gegenwartsliteratur von Frauen* abwerten und vereinheitlichen. Ihre vergleichende Analyse zeichnet ein Bild pluraler Herkunftsnarrative und Entwicklungstendenzen.

The World Between Two Covers Oct 23 2021 A beguiling exploration of the joys of reading across boundaries, inspired by the author's year-long journey through a book from every country. Ann Morgan writes in the opening of this delightful book, "I glanced up at my bookshelves, the proud record of more than twenty years of reading, and found a host of English and North American greats starting down at me...I had barely touched a work by a foreign language author in years...The awful truth dawned. I was a literary xenophobe." Prompted to read a book translated into English from each of the world's 195 UN-recognized countries (plus Taiwan and one extra), Ann sought out classics, folktales, current favorites and commercial triumphs, novels, short stories, memoirs, and countless mixtures of all these things. The world between two covers, the world to which Ann introduces us with affection and no small measure of wit, is a world rich in the kind of narratives that engage us passionately: we meet an irreverent junk food-obsessed heroine in Kuwait, an explorer from Togo who spent years among the Inuit in Greenland, and a former child circus performer of Roma background seeking sanctuary in Switzerland. Ann's quest explores issues that affect us all: personal, political, national, and global. What is cultural heritage? How do we define national identity? Is it possible to overcome censorship and propaganda? And, above all, why and how should we read from other cultures, languages, and traditions? Illuminating and inspiring, The World Between Two Covers welcomes us into the global community of stories.

Linguistics, Literature and Culture Oct 30 2019 This book documents the changing realities in the fields of linguistics, literature and culture in Asia, resulting from globalization, modernisation and rapid technological development. It consists of sixteen essays by academics and researchers around the world, reflecting on the interface between the global and the local, and its impact on the local and regional languages, literatures and cultures of Asia. This scenario, which exemplifies language contact in action, is captured by the book mainly to demonstrate that linguistic negotiations, appropriations and indeed changes are not one-way. As such, their implications on language use, language choice, language policy and planning, literacy and pedagogy, identity, subjectivity and culture need to be closely examined. The uniqueness of this book lies in its attempt to showcase original research in a variety of multicultural settings. Its multi- and cross-disciplinary approach will appeal to a wide spectrum of readers from diverse backgrounds. This book will serve as a useful reference that is both scholarly and informative for researchers as well as academics in the fields of linguistics, literature and culture.

Traditions Redirecting Contemporary Indonesian Cultural Productions Sep 29 2019 This volume is the result of a conference held in October 2015 in connection with the Frankfurt Book Fair discussing developments that are considered important in contemporary Indonesian cultural productions. The first part of the book reflects on the traumatic experiences of the Indonesian nation caused by a failed coup on October 1, 1965. In more general theoretical terms, this topic connects to the field of memory studies, which, in recent decades, has made an academic comeback. The focus of the chapters in this section is how certain, often distressing, events are represented in narratives in a variety of media that are periodically renewed, changed, rehearsed, repeated, and performed, in order to become or stay part of the collective memory of a certain group of people. The second part of the book explores how forces of globalisation have impacted upon the local and, linguistically surprisingly, rather homogeneous cultural productions of Indonesia. The main strands of inquiry in this second section are topics of global trends in religion, responses to urban development, the impact of popular literary developments, and how traditions are revisited in order to come to terms with international cultural developments.

The Other Side of Hate Is Love Jan 14 2021 The Other Side of Hate is Love is a creative journal to process heartbreak through writing, doodling, and mindfulness practice. Write, draw, paint, and doodle in it. Do the exercises. Pour your heart out. In this book, Hanny shared her personal stories and life lessons, both the difficult and the easy, the lonely and the joyful, the bitter and the sweet, to accompany you throughout your heartbreak journey. When Hanny first sent me this book, I didn't know what I would find inside the carefully prepared package. Fiction, non-fiction, or one of those particular books that seem to be everything in between. What I found was something close to her heart, and mine: a reflection on mistakes done by us and to us, a thorough insight on the process of healing, and a guide that speaks to us like a friend. Rain Chudori, writer and curator of Comma Books

The Restless May 30 2022 This lyrical novel, structured like a Creole quadrille, is a rich ethnography bearing witness to police violence in French Guadeloupe. Narrators both living and dead recount the racial and class stratification that led to a protest-turned-massacre. Dambury's English debut is a vibrant memorial to a largely forgotten atrocity, coinciding with the government's declassification of documents pertaining to the incident.

Saman Sep 02 2022 Ein katholischer Priester stößt durch sein Engagement für unterdrückte Kleinbauern zum indonesischen Widerstand. Er verliebt sich in eine Menschenrechtsanwältin, gibt sein Priesteramt auf und emigriert nach New York. Ayu Utami thematisiert das schwierige Verhältnis zwischen Muslimen und Christen sowie den Hass auf die chinesische Minderheit. Virtuos wechselt sie zwischen Erzählperspektiven, Schauplätzen und Zeitebenen. Sie verknüpft Traumsequenzen und Mythen mit zeitgenössischen Verhältnissen. Der offene Umgang mit Tabus stellt einen Bruch mit der bis dato existierenden indonesischen Literatur dar.

Contemporary Indonesian Fashion Jan 26 2022 Indonesian fashion has undergone a period of rapid growth over the last three decades. This book explores how through years of social, political, and cultural upheaval, the country's fashion has moved away from "colonial fashion" and "national dress" to claim its own distinct identity as contemporary fashion in a global world. With specific reference to women's wear, Contemporary Indonesian Fashion explores the diversity and complexity of the country's sartorial offerings, which weave together local textile traditions like batik and ikat-making with contemporary narratives. The book questions concepts of "tradition" and "modernity" in the developing world, taking stock of the elite consumption of luxury brands and the large-scale manufacturing of fast fashion, and introduces us to the rise of new trends such as busana muslim (or "modest wear"), creating a portrait of a vibrant and growing national and, increasingly, international, industry. Exploring clothing in shopping malls, on the catwalk, in magazines, and online, the book examines how Indonesian fashion is made, presented, and consumed, combining research in Indonesia with analysis and personal reflection. Contemporary Indonesian Fashion ultimately questions the deeply entrenched eurocentrism of "global fashion", simultaneously interrogating current homogenizing beauty and body image discourses posited as universal, by pointing to absences, silences, and erasures as reflected by contemporary Indonesian fashion- hence the "looking glass" of the title. Aptly illustrated, the book offers a new perspective on a rapidly developing new fashion capital, Jakarta.

Foe Feb 24 2022 Nobel Laureate and two-time Booker prize-winning author of Disgrace and The Life and Times of Michael K, J. M. Coetzee reimagines Daniel DeFoe's classic novel Robinson Crusoe in Foe. Published as a Penguin Essential for the first time. In an act of breathtaking imagination, J.M Coetzee radically reinvents the story of Robinson Crusoe. In the early eighteenth century, Susan Barton finds herself adrift from a mutinous ship and cast ashore on a remote desert island. There she finds shelter with its only other inhabitants: a man named Crusoe and his tongueless slave, Friday. In time, she builds a life for herself as Crusoe's companion and, eventually, his lover. At last they are rescued by a passing ship, but only she and Friday survive the journey back to London. Determined to have her story told, she pursues the eminent man of letters Daniel Foe in the hope that he will relate truthfully her memories to the world. But with Crusoe dead, Friday incapable of speech and Foe himself intent on reshaping her narrative, Barton struggles to maintain her grip on the past, only to fall victim to the seduction of storytelling itself. Treacherous, elegant and unexpectedly moving, Foe remains one of the most exquisitely composed of this pre-eminent author's works. 'A small miracle of a book... of marvellous intricacy and overwhelming power' Washington Post 'A superb novel' The New York Times

Anatomi Rasa Nov 23 2021 Marja, apa itu cinta? Cinta adalah pesawat luar angkasa di tengah semesta sunyi senyap yang mendapat sinyal bersahabat. Pertanyaan yang menemukan jawab. Petunjuk bahwa kita tidak sendiri di muka bumi. Asmara membakar, sementara cinta menerangi. Demikian surat Parang Jati pada Marja, kekasih yang tak ia miliki. Tapi, ia tidak berhenti pada sentimentalisme dan rasa-rasa permukaan. Sebaliknya, ia menguraikan pemikirannya tentang struktur Rasa, yang dikembangkan dari khazanah spiritual Nusantara, khususnya Jawa. Buku ini juga bisa dibaca sebagai suatu tawaran teori psikologi indigenus. Ia ingin membuktikan bahwa masyarakat Nusantara menyimpan struktur kesadaran yang sama sekali tidak ketinggalan zaman, bahkan justru semakin relevan di masa ini. Yaitu, struktur yang mempersatukan pertentangan tanpa mengubah sifat. Inilah yang memungkinkan Pancasila, Bhinneka Tunggal Ika, dan Indonesia modern. Orang Jawa menyebutnya Rasa.

Soegija 100% Indonesia Aug 01 2022 "Semarang, 1945 ... tampaknya, dendam antara pasukan Jepang dan pemuda Indonesia meningkat. Perwira Jepang itu hendak menjebak dan membantai anak-anak muda sebelum menyerahkan diri pada Sekutu. Saat itulah, Soegija, sebagai uskup Semarang, mengusahakan gancatan senjata dan berhasil. Itu adalah sebagian dari kisah kepahlawanan Albertus Soegijapranata, SJ. Sebagai rohaniwan, ia menekankan negosiasi dan diplomasi. Sedangkan bagi umat Katolik Indonesia, Soegija adalah tokoh yang sangat istimewa. Ia adalah uskup pribumi pertama di Nusantara. Ia merumuskan formula "100% Katolik, 100% Indonesia". Di bawah kepemimpinannya, umat Katolik menjadi pendukung dan pejuang republik."

The Indonesia Reader Mar 16 2021 Indonesia is the world's largest archipelago, encompassing nearly eighteen thousand islands. The fourth-most populous nation in the world, it has a larger Muslim population than any other. The Indonesia Reader is a unique introduction to this extraordinary country. Assembled for the traveler, student, and expert alike, the Reader includes more than 150 selections: journalists' articles, explorers' chronicles, photographs, poetry, stories, cartoons, drawings, letters, speeches, and more. Many pieces are by Indonesians; some are translated into English for the first time. All have introductions by the volume's editors. Well-known figures such as Indonesia's acclaimed novelist Pramoedya Ananta Toer and the American anthropologist Clifford Geertz are featured alongside other artists and scholars, as well as politicians, revolutionaries, colonists, scientists, and activists. Organized chronologically, the volume addresses early Indonesian civilizations; contact with traders from India, China, and the Arab Middle East; and the European colonization of Indonesia, which culminated in centuries of Dutch rule. Selections offer insight into Japan's occupation (1942-45), the establishment of an independent Indonesia, and the post-independence era, from Sukarno's presidency (1945-67), through Suharto's dictatorial regime (1967-98), to the present Reformasi period. Themes of resistance and activism recur: in a book excerpt decrying the exploitation of Java's natural wealth by the Dutch; in the writing of Raden Ajeng Kartini (1879-1904), a Javanese princess considered the icon of Indonesian feminism; in a 1978 statement from East Timor objecting to annexation by Indonesia; and in an essay by the founder of Indonesia's first gay activist group. From fifth-century Sanskrit inscriptions in stone to selections related to the 2002 Bali bombings and the 2004 tsunami, The Indonesia Reader conveys the long history and the cultural, ethnic, and ecological diversity of this far-flung archipelago nation.

Genre and Second Language Writing Oct 11 2020 Second language students not only need strategies for drafting and revising to write effectively, but also a clear understanding of genre so that they can appropriately structure their writing for various contexts. Over that last decade, increasing attention has been paid to the notion of genre and its central place in language teaching and learning. Genre and Second Language Writing enters into this important debate, providing an accessible introduction to current theory and research in the area of written genres-and applying these understandings to the practical concerns of today's EFL/ESL classroom. Each chapter includes discussion and review questions and small-scale practical research activities. Like the other texts in the popular Michigan Series on Teaching Multilingual Writers, this book will interest ESL teachers in training, teacher educators, current ESL instructors, and researchers and scholars in the area of ESL writing.

The Kite Runner Dec 13 2020 I became what I am today at the age of twelve. I remember the precise moment, crouching behind a mud wall on a frigid winter day in 1975 . . . looking into a deserted alley. It's wrong what they say about the past, about how you can bury it, because the past claws its way out. I realize I've been looking into that alley for the last 26 years. Afghanistan is a divided country on the verge of war and two childhood friends are about to be torn apart. It's a beautiful afternoon in Kabul and the skies are full of the excitement and joy of a kite flying tournament. But neither Hassan or Amir can foresee the terrible incident which will shatter their lives forever. Khaled Hosseini's first and international best-selling novel has now been adapted into a stunning stage adaptation by Matthew Spangler. This edition was published for the production at Wyndham's Theatre, London, from 21 December 2016.

Military Politics, Islam, and the State in Indonesia Sep 09 2020 Based on a decade of research in Indonesia, this book provides an in-depth account of the military's struggle to adapt to the new democratic system after the downfall of Suharto's authoritarian regime in 1998. Unlike other studies of the Indonesian armed forces, which focus exclusively on internal military developments, Mietzner's study emphasizes the importance of conflicts among civilians in determining the extent of military involvement in political affairs. Analysing disputes between Indonesia's main Muslim groups, Mietzner argues that their intense rivalry between 1998 and 2004 allowed the military to extend its engagement in politics and protect its institutional interests. The stabilization of the civilian polity after 2004, in contrast, has led to an increasing marginalization of the armed forces from the power centre. Drawing broader conclusions from these events for Indonesia's ongoing process of democratic consolidation, the book shows that the future role of the armed forces in politics will largely depend on the ability of civilian leaders to maintain functioning democratic institutions and procedures.
