Belly Laughs Apr 03 2020 Belly Laughs: Jokes for Kids is a playfully illustrated joke book for kids, guaranteed to make their friends (and adults) laugh out loud. Kids love making people laugh and Belly Laughs: Jokes for Kids gets them started with clever riddles, jokes, and one-liners about familiar topics they (and you) can relate to. Written by stand-up comedian Amir Yaz, Belly Laughs breaks out the set-up and punchline to help kids nail that ever-important component of successful comedy - perfect timing. Readers will learn about word play, how to quickly deliver a joke, and even how to write their own based on Yaz's tried-and-true joke patterns. With playful illustrations, kids will have just as much fun reading this book solo as they will in front of their friends and family. And since kids are natural born improv artists, they'll come back to the material again and again, adding their own take and flourishes. Belly Laughs makes a great gift for kids 4-12, for those learning to read and those who love being the (well-mannered) center of attention.

Best Foot Forward May 17 2021 Adam Hills was a quiet primary school kid with a prosthetic foot, who did all his homework and only spoke when spoken to. His dad sparked in him a love of comedy and together they'd spend hours watching and listening to the greats like Peter Sellers and Mel Brooks, so, when it was Adam's turn to speak, he made sure he was funny. Once he hit high school, comedy was Adam's obsession (along with a deep love for the South Sydney Rabbitohs). While his mates were listening to Iron Maiden and AC/DC, he was listening to Kenny Everett and Billy Connolly. And when a report card came home with a comment praising his sense of humour, he was far prouder of that than his grades (his mum not so much). Adam's shyness and his missing foot never held him back, though wearing things was tricky. While other teens snuck off to meet girls and drink cheap booze, Adam snuck off to see a young Jim Carrey perform. After that, a steady diet of Rodney Yead, Vince Sorrenti and Robin Williams led this sheltered, virginal university student from The Shire to his first stand-up open mic night on his 19th birthday. In Best Foot Forward, Adam describes his early years on the Australian comedy scene sharing gigs with Steady Eddy and Jimeoin, how he coped the first time he died on stage, his early-morning apprenticeship in radio, touring the world's comedy festivals, the magic of Spicks and Specks and his hosting gig for the 2008 Paralympics that led to his ongoing hit UK TV show The Last Leg. Whoopi Goldberg, Barry Humphries, Billy Connolly, Kermit the Frog - Adam's learned from the best. This charming, witty memoir is a lesson in following your heart, being positive and discovering that what makes you different also makes you unique.

Old MacDonald Heard a Fart from the Past Aug 27 2019

Stand-Up Comedy Jun 25 2019 Develop creative writing and performance skills while discovering your inner comedic genius! Do you love comedy? Ever wonder how your favorite comic got their start? What was it like that first time they got on stage? What was it like trying to write that first joke or routine? You think watching comedy is fun? It's even more fun to make people laugh. "Stand-Up Comedy: Easy 4-Step Guide to Writing and Performing Original Comedy Routines" can be used by all aspiring comics to create new material. It is also for secondary school teachers as a textbook and frame work for a teen (or preteen) comedy class elective, creative writing section within your ELA class or after school programming. Author, Walt Frasier, has been teaching comedy classes to kids, teens and adults since 2009 working with numerous arts organizations and directly with schools, camps and community organizations. Through his Improv 4 Kids program, Frasier has been providing educational outreach shows and workshops to NYC area schools since 2003, and mid-west tours in 2008 and 2013. Now, in the midst of the Covid-19 pandemic, Frasier and his team (EIGHT IS NEVER ENOUGH Improv Comedy) host students of all ages from around the country and beyond (including Canada, UK and Norway) in their online shows, classes and comedy camp. They perform comedy shows and lead workshops for corporate teams, K12 schools and community groups remotely via zoom. His simple approach can turn anyone into an amateur comic: with enough dedication, perhaps even a professional. Compared to many traditional theater arts programming, everyone is a star in comedy class. Everyone can learn and grow at their own pace. Forward by Carolyn White, Kenan Thompson's 2019 "Funniest Kid in America". Coming soon: IMPROV COMEDY for the classroom.
