Private Equity Investments Mar 15 2021 Private Equity experienced dramatic flutuations in investment activity in line with the turbulences of financial markets in recent years. Claudia Sommer develops a theoretical framework of factors driving private equity investment activity and the resulting performance implications. Using a data set of more than 40,000 European transations between 1990 and 2009 she applies a variety of econometrial approaches and shows how neoclassical aspects, information asymmetries, agency conflicts, and market timing contribute to the dynamics in the private equity market. In a performance analysis of more than 1,300 European private equity funds, she reveals how fund performance is linked to investment activity.

Democracy and the Death of Shame Apr 27 2022 Is shame dead? With personal information made so widely available, an eroding public/private distinction, and a therapeutic turn in public discourse, many seem to think so. People across the political spectrum have criticized these developments and sought to resurrect shame in order to protect privacy and invigorate democratic politics. Democracy and the Death of Shame reads the fear that 'shame is dead' as an expression of anxiety about the social disturbance endemic to democratic politics. Far from an essential supplement to democracy, the recurring call to 'bring back shame' and other civilizing mores is a disciplinary reaction to the work of democratic citizens who extend the meaning of political equality into social realms. Rereadings from the ancient Cynics to the mid-twentieth century challenge the view that shame is dead and show how shame, as a politically charged idea, is disavowed, invoked, and negotiated in moments of democratic struggle.

Christoph Menke Jun 29 2022 Christoph Menke (*1958), Professor für Philosophie an der Goethe-Universität Frankfurt am Main, beschäftigt sich in seinem Essay mit der Frage, wie oder wo Gleichheit zwischen den Menschen besteht. Der Autor betrachtet verschiedene philosophiegeschichtliche und politische Konzepte, wie die konträren Auffassungen von Faschismus und Kommunismus oder die unterschiedlichen Auslegungen des Zusammenhangs von Gleichheit und Vernunft bei Aristoteles und Descartes. Als Antwort auf die gegenwärtige Debatte über die Frage nach Gleichheit schlägt Menke eine Fortführung in Form einer »ästhetischen Gleichheit« vor, die die Annahme der Aufklärung, nach der alle Menschen über das gleiche Vernunftvermögen verfügen, radikalisiert: Die Gleichheit besteht hier in einer allen Menschen gegebenen Kraft oder Einbildungskraft und bedeutet die Gleichheit der Möglichkeit zur übenden Ausbildung der Vernunft, die »kein eingeborenes, sondern ein sozial erworbenes Vermögen ist«. Death in Equality Oct 02 2022 After discovering that she is dying of lung cancer, aspiring young novelist Cordelia returns to her home in Equality, Alabama, because she is the seventh "Cordelia" in her matrilineal line and tradition and memory are all the small town has left.

Decision-Making in Private Equity Firms Feb 23 2022 The decisions of private equity firms affect the development of industries and national economies, yet little is known about how these decisions are made. Mark Broere uses proprietary survey data from 136 private equity firms (venture capital and buyout) located in the US, Canada, and Europe to explore determinants and rules of their decision-making. The results exhibit new facts about their objectives, success measures, decision criteria, exit decision power and rules. A discussion in light of existing financial theory highlights, e.g. the role of reputation, and potential pitfalls in the decision-making of practitioners. The author suggests that private equity firms might improve their performance by a more careful choice of decision rules and criteria and by a more consistent application of these across varying decision types.

Deontology, Responsibility, and Equality Jul 31 2022 Three questions that loom large in moral and political philosophy are these: Can deontological moral constraints be justified? When, if ever, are we morally responsible for what we do? How is the ideal of equality best configured? Deontology, Responsibility and Equality deals with selected aspects of these three broad questions. It critically discusses certain attempts by Frances Kamm and Thomas Nagel (among others) to account for the impermissibility of minimizing violations in terms of moral status. Also, it challenges the view that there is a morally relevant difference between doing and allowing harm and, especially, between killing and letting die. In relation to the second question, it concentrates on recent developments within compatibilist accounts of moral responsibility prompted by the work of Harry Frankfurt. It challenges his purported refutation of the principle of alternative possibilities as well as certain positive compatibilist, identification-based accounts of respon Debating Women's Equality Aug 08 2020 Gerhard (sociology, Johann Wolfgang Goethe University, Germany) examines equality as a principle and practice of law in history, and legal theory from a feminist perspective. She reviews the history of the women's movement in the 19th and 20th centuries, with a focus on Germany, and examines three major legal issues: women's rights in the public sphere, women's legal capacities in private law, and women's human rights. This work was first published in German in 1990 (C.H. Beck'sche Verlagsbuchhandlung); this American edition, somewhat revised, was translated by Allison Brown and Belinder Cooper and includes a new foreword. c. Book News Inc.

Liberty, Equality, and Plurality Oct 10 2020 Voters as well as ethicists and legal experts are currently debating many of the issues inherent in balancing individual with majority and minority group rights, though often, there seems to be an inverse correlation between the two. May (Washington U.) chairs lively multidisciplinary discussions on: the (in)compatibility of liberty and equality (with responsibility being the wild card); law, morality, and limits on liberty (in regard to freedom of speech, poverty, taxation, and assisted suicide); and equality and the clash of cultures (in cases of hate speech, and religious freedom vs. refusal of medical treatment). Rezension Von Gender-Class Equality in Political Economies (Lynn Prince Cooke) Und for the Family? How Class and Gender Shape Womens Work (Sarah D Jul 07 2020 Rezension / Literaturbericht aus dem Jahr 2014 im Fachbereich Soziologie - Familie, Frauen, Manner, Sexualitat, Geschlechter, Note: 1,7, Universitat Rostock, Veranstaltung:

Lekturseminar: Die unvollendete Revolution - Geschlechterungleichheit im Wandel, Sprache: Deutsch, Abstract: Die Erwerbschancen von Frauen haben sich in den letzten Jahrzehnten deutlich verbessert. Seit den 70er Jahren, haben die Frauen grosse Fortschritte auf dem Arbeitsmarkt gemacht. Jedoch sind sie noch immer deutlich schlechter gestellt als Manner. Dies zeigt sich in der niedrigeren Erwerbstatigenquote, dem hohen Anteil an - zumeist nicht freiwillig gewahlter - Teilzeit- und geringfugiger Beschäftigung und dem geringeren Einkommen im Vergleich zu Mannern (vgl. Cooke 2011: 1). Diese Veranderungen sind demnach unvollständig, und man kann beim Wandel der Geschlechterrollen von einer "unvollendeten Revolution"1 sprechen. Die Vorstellung der Hingabe der Frauen fur die Familie bleibt bestehen. Allerdings hat diese sich um die finanzielle Unterstutzung erweitert. Viele Frauen arbeiten sowohl im Haushalt als auch ausserhalb der familiaren Raume. Gegenwartig begegnen die Frauen demnach schwer zu vereinbarende Verpflichtungen bezuglich der Erwerbsarbeit und der Familie. Sehr haufig stehen beide Lebensbereiche in einem konkurrierendem Verhaltnis und die Frauen sehen sich mit der Herausforderung konfrontiert, ein ausbalanciertes Verhaltnis von Familie und Beruf zu erreichen. Hierfur entwickeln die Frauen ganz neue Muster der Erwerbsbeteiligung. Diese verschiedenen Wege, die die Frauen am Arbeitsmarkt nachgehen, sind Diskussionsstoff fur gegenwartige Auseinandersetzungen in Wissenschaft und Politik und Basis fur etliche Studien. Auch die amerikanischen Soziologinnen Sarah Damaske und Lynn Prince Cooke reihen sich in diese Forschungen ein. Beide Wissenschaftlerinnen verfassten 2011 erwahnswerte Bucher, die sich der Frage widmen warum die Erwerbsmuster von Frauen so stark variieren und sich auch erheblich

Financial Accounting and Equity Markets Jan 25 2022 Philip Brown is one of the most admired and respected accounting academics alive today. He was a pioneer in capital markets research in accounting, and his 1968 article, co-authored with Ray Ball, "An Empirical Evaluation of Accounting Income Numbers," arguably had a greater impact on the course of accounting research, directly and indirectly, than any other article during the second half of the twentieth century. Since that time, his innovative research has focused on issues that bridge accounting and finance, including the relationships between net profit reports and the stock market, the long-run performance of acquiring firms, statutory sanctions and voluntary corporate disclosure, and the politics and future of national accounting standards to name a few. This volume brings together the greatest hits of Brown's career, including several articles that were published in out-of-the-way places, for easier use by students and researchers in the field. With a foreword written by Stephen A. Zeff, and an introduction that discusses the evolution of Brown's research interests and explains the context for each of the essays included in the volume, this book offers the reader a unique look inside this remarkable 50-year career.

Private Equity Minority Investments: An Attractive Financing Alternative for Family Firms Sep 28 2019 Private equity minority investments have become an increasingly attractive financing alternative for family firms. However, admitting a private equity investor as a minority shareholder seems to contradict with the objective of the owner family to preserve their continuous and unlimited influence on the businesses since they must at least partially cede control over the firm to the private equity investor. Therefore, the purpose of this book is to identify the primary decision drivers for family firm entrepreneurs in seeking private equity financing despite the therein related partial loss of control. By giving special consideration to the potential cooperation mechanisms between the shareholders, this book goes beyond the scope of previous studies. Cooperation is thereby considered as a prerequisite for the success of minority investments because due to its minority position, the private equity investor is not able to implement its value creation strategy against the will of the family firm entrepreneur.
